

Himachal Pradesh Public Service Commission

Press release

Dated: 15 March, 2023

Himachal Pradesh Public Service Commission taking strict cognizance of the news published in some daily Hindi newspapers dated March 11, 2023 titled 'Candidate remained absent at the examination centre but declared passed', held a special meeting of Himachal Pradesh Public Service Commission on 14.03.2023 in which a thorough and detailed examination of the documents of the Assistant Professor (College Cadre) in Music (Vocal) Subject Examination was carried out and it was found that the allegations which were published against the Public Service Commission in some Hindi newspapers were wrong, false and baseless / fact less. The fact about the candidate about whom a newspaper had accused the Commission for having declared the candidate passed despite being absent in the examination centre, were confirmed by the Commission from the relevant documents of the candidate and found that the allegation was baseless and false and no such case was found.

Therefore, the Public Service Commission condemns the reporting of such incidents without proper investigation. As far as wrong answers in the answer key are concerned, procedure has been followed in this regard by the Commission as per its rules (Rule of Business).

Himachal Pradesh Public Service Commission has always been friendly to the candidates and no discrimination is done against any candidate. Every examination is conducted by the Himachal Pradesh Public Service Commission with utmost seriousness, fairness and rules. The image of the Commission has always been clean and it is reckoned as one of the best Commission in the country. The Commission also appeals to the candidates to stay away from such misconceptions and cooperate in completing the tasks of the Commission in a time bound manner.
